

Lieutenant Colonel P W J Whitehead OBE

Peter joined the Squadron in July 1966 having successfully completed parachute training at RAF Abingdon. He served as a member of MT troop and on return from a Squadron deployment tour to Northern Ireland he was promoted to Sergeant and joined the Directing Staff of P Company as an instructor.

He left the Squadron in 1977 on posting to Hereford where he subsequently successfully completed regimental selection and joined A Squadron, 22 Special Air Service Regiment. He retired in 2003 having held a number of appointments in the Corps both regimental and at staff.

He joined General Dynamics (United Kingdom) Limited in March 2003 as their Head of Facilities until finally retiring in late 2011. He lives in Bredon with his wife Maureen and has two daughters. He is currently Chairman of the local branch of the Royal British Legion, Chair of Governors at the village first school and a Church Warden at the local village church.

-----